

WILLIAM T. CRAMER

ATTORNEY AT LAW

Admitted to practice in Ohio (1997), California (1999), and the U.S. District Court, S.D. Ohio (2008).

Legal Experience

May 2007 to present: Operating a solo law practice focused on appellate litigation.

Dec. 2005 to May 2007: Staff Attorney for Ohio Legislative Service Commission

- Drafted and analyzed legislation, conducted legal research, and advised legislators on state and local government issues, including elections, ethics, government employees, and government structure.
- Served as staff member for various legislative committees that addressed state and local government concerns, including the 2006 Eminent Domain Task Force.

Sept. 2000 to Sept. 2005: Research Attorney for California Court of Appeal, Fourth District, Div. Two

- Drafted judicial opinions and internal memoranda addressing a wide variety of California law.

Dec. 1999 to Sept. 2000: Annual Research Attorney for Supreme Court of California

- Evaluated petitions for review in criminal and juvenile delinquency cases, drafted memoranda explaining the issues and exploring the need for review, and discussed the petitions with the Justices.

June 1997 to Sept. 1999: Staff Attorney for Court of Appeals of Ohio, Ninth District

- Drafted judicial opinions and internal memoranda addressing a wide variety of Ohio law.
- Maintained a portion of the docket by determining jurisdiction and monitoring compliance with rules.
- Provided training and guidance to new staff attorney during second year.

May 1996 to June 1997: Law Clerk for Weiner, Suit & Coury, a small firm in Cleveland, Ohio, that specialized in personal injury, medical malpractice, and worker's compensation.

June 1995 to Aug. 1995: Law Clerk for Patterson & Bleiweiss, a small general practice firm in Willoughby, Ohio.

Education

Case Western Reserve University, School of Law: Juris Doctor, 1997; GPA 3.37/4.00; Journal of International Law, 1994-97 (Exec. Articles Editor, 1996-97); Mock Trial Team, 1995-96; Law Clinic, 1996-97.

University of Cincinnati: Bachelor of Arts, 1994; GPA 3.33/4.00, with honors in Political Science.

Activities

Member of Delaware County Law Library Resources Board, appointed in 2009.

Member of Orange Township Board of Zoning Appeals, appointed in 2007.

Associations

ABA, OSBA, Columbus Bar Association, and Delaware County Bar Association.